Dear Sir:- We are really amazed & also worried at the blunders of our state Dept, following propaganda of Reds losing our freedom!

We made a man of Cuba, in checking or finding out. Just listened to the Reds, now its the same in the Congo. We want to hear what Belgium has to say? How about having the truth here.

Also what a great injustice is going on in refugees from Cuba & China, why mistreat them? Tito is a Red like Khrushchev, same slavery too, wake up please & treat these refugees right & give them asylum no wonder Europe amazed at our attitude

Consult the people that know the facts.
Please learn, So Consult Bishop & Dean
Cardinalushing, Fr. Brown now in Europe
& also Mrs. Swanson, never mind listening to Soviet-American propaganda.
Let the honest American Comm do a good job, listen to the truth from these refugees. we've made too many blunders

Only one coming out as a visitor etc from Prussia, then the government is a spy or

2. Catholics should subscribe to and recommend to others their best anti-Communist, anti-Liberal weekly, The Wanderer, 128 East 10 St., St. Paul 1, Minn. Six months for $2.00. Do it now!
3. Jews should have a special interest in joining general support of the Alfred Kohlberg Memorial Fund, Room 705, 1790 Broadway, New York 19, N.Y.

Some overdue thoughts:

1. We think Fulton Lewis Jr. should have a TV program, But, he has trouble holding his radio spot. How about patronizing his sponsors and dropping them an occasional thank you card? Later on, we can drive for the TV program.
2. The chapters on communism in Sen. Barry Goldwater's "Conscience of a Conservative" should be required reading for every voter. The book is now available in paperback for fifty cents from the Bookmailer, Box 101, New York 16, N.Y. (Do not omit the zone number. It is necessary for delivery.)
3. We could use many more schools against communism like the one being conducted from August 29th to September 2nd at the Glenview, Illinois Naval Air Station. Course is entitled Education for American Security.
4. Every month, the officers of the League have to supplement the funds with their salaries and personal savings. Contrary to the belief of some, there is no millionaire or influential group backing us. Our backing comes from our convictions and our members. All we ask is that every member try to get new members. When we are large enough, support will take care of itself. But, if you fail to sell the League to others, there will be no League to sell. It is up to you.

IN AND OUT

(From time to time, we would like to feature the following as an understandable bit of snobbery. Your suggestions for additions to the list will be appreciated.)

Eleanor Roosevelt is Out. The F.B.I. is In. Liberalism is Out. Frank Meyer is In. Mental Health is Out. And the editorial writers for the N.Y. Times are definitely Out. Fulton Lewis Jr. is so In he has sponsor trouble. The New Republic and the Nation are going further and further Out but the National Review is In. George Sokolsky is In. Adlai Stevenson is Out, has been Out, and will continue to be Out. Dean Manion remains, as ever, In. People who say, "I liked Joe McCarthy but I didn't like his methods," are pathetically Out, as are those who say, "There is no harm in trying to do business with the Reds." They are Out. Conservative cell meetings are In. The American Legion, God bless it, is naturally In. David Samoff's recent article in Life Magazine was In. But Life is Out. The House Un-American Activities Committee is In. (Those opposed to it are disqualified). SANE is Out but Youth for Goldwater is In. The Circuit Riders, Christian Beacon, and Brooklyn Tablet are all In but Commonweal is Out. Rabbi Shultz is In. The general approach of the U.N. to present world problems is Out. Konrad Adenauer and Chiang Kai Shek are In although Kishi is "Out" (sic). The present Supreme Court of the U.S.A. is Out. But the United States of America and the ideals of true freedom in a just Republic will be In, please God, until the end of the world.

Copies of this leaflet are available at 30 for a dollar or 200 for five dollars, all postpaid. A variety of monthly leaflets and an invitation to join us will be sent free on request. Compromise with injustice is the lowest form of tyranny.

Subject: World Law

LIBERAL LAW

It is high time that the word Liberal became recognized as a dirty word. Liberals do not accept the lessons of history or the Divine and Natural Laws. They try to fill the resulting void by legislating the Sermon on the Mount and by supporting the bureaucratic version of charity via taxation. Therefore, we wind up rendering to Caesar the things that are God's, and we have only the shell of Christianity with neither motive behind its initiation nor understanding behind its execution. Charity is the Lamb. Statism is a wolf. Liberalism is a wolf in the clothing of the Lamb.

At some later date, we shall deal with Liberalism as such. Here, we wish to show only one way in which our Liberal Internationalists are helping the Communists to undermine American government; namely, "World peace through world law." This lofty slogan, its impressive list of endorsers notwithstanding, is potentially America's swan song. Liberals have given us this slogan to explain why they want the World Court to operate within our shores free from the prudent limits set by the Connally Reservation.

AMERICAN LAW

The United Nations Charter provided for a World Court (International Court of Justice) but, because American sovereignty had to be protected, Senator Tom Connally of Texas suggested we enter the United Nations with one reservation. Thus, on August 2, 1946, America accepted the U.N. and its World Court with the understanding that we would not agree to U.N. rulings in "matters which are essentially within the domestic jurisdiction of the United States AS DETERMINED BY THE UNITED STATES." The six capitalized words are the Connally Reservation. In accordance with American Law, we decide ourselves what comprises a domestic affair over which the U.N. World Court can have no jurisdiction.

Our Liberals still insist that the World Court should make this decision and should determine itself when it has a right to demand, on any given matter, that our Nation submit to its rulings. Accordingly, the pressure is on for abandonment of the Connally Reservation. Recently, the House Ways and Means Committee decided by a margin of one vote to TEMPORARILY put aside the topic of discarding the Connally Reservation. It was tabled for the time being only because the leaders of both political parties are in favor of erasing the Reservation and surrendering our sovereignty to the World Court. The Liberals agreed to drop the question in Congress until after elections so that public pressure would not force commitments from candidates.

Before mid 1961, our American Law and our very Constitution are to be twisted to fit the mold of the International Court of Justice.

GOD'S LAW

We believe that Pope Pius XII spoke the thoughts of God-fearing Americans of all religions when he defined proper national sovereignty in December, 1953: "Sovereignty in the true sense means self-rule and exclusive competence concerning what has to be done in regard to the affairs of a definite territory, always within the framework of international law, WITHOUT, HOWEVER, BECOMING DEPENDENT ON THE JURIDICAL SYSTEM OF ANY OTHER STATE."

Certainly, making it possible for Communists to dictate policies to the U.S.A. through the U.N. is against God's Law. "Thou shalt not kill." And, if you think we are exaggerating the result of abandoning the Connally Reservation, you are indeed naive.

U.N. LAW

The World Court is composed of 15 judges. There cannot be more than one from any nation. Nine judges make up a quorum and a majority of a quorum (that is, five) is enough to render decisions from which there is no appeal.

At present, the U.S.A. has one representative on the Court. However, there is no guarantee that he will be replaced by another American when his term expires. The most we could ever hope for is one representative, and there is a good chance we would wind up accepting the rulings of a Court on which we were not represented at all.

Russia and Poland are on the World Court. There are two or three other members on whom we can hardly rely in every crisis. What a position to be in if the World Court should one day decide that a Castro-inspired disturbance in the Panama Canal Zone was within its jurisdiction! What a danger to survival if we make it even slightly possible for a Red nation to vote on our tariff laws, our immigration quotas and allied security provisions, the disposition of foreign aid, etc., etc.

"World peace through world law" is one more Liberal step toward the end of American freedom and independence. Togetherness! "Let us all join hands and march off beyond the horizon," they say. And beyond the horizon, a common grave!

WHAT TO DO

Repeat, repeat, repeat. Make a point of mentioning the Connally Reservation to friends and relatives. Quote the six words of the Reservation and explain their significance. Let it be known that we have a few months to influence the thinking of our leaders because both candidates for President are against the Connally Reservation. (They think the rest of the world will follow our example in submitting to U.N. rule and a great era of peace will follow). Explain that the Liberals in Congress have lined up the more venal segment of the membership, convincing them that repeal would be popular. Use the counter-slogan,

"World pieces through world communism." Hound, heckle, and harass our candidates for the White House and Congress until they are finally drawn out on the issue. This, after all, is our reason for choosing the topic this month. Do not let them kick off their election campaigns with double talk about achieving a sense of national purpose, subsidizing disabled dog catchers, and outlawing ants at picnics. We want unequivocal statements on the most important matter: the Connally Reservation.

AN INSPIRATION

We are tired of those prophets of doom who run around saying that it is too late, that we have already lost, that it is useless to fight the powerful traitors who have sold us out time after time.

We are inspired by the recent primary fight in the 8th A.D., Bronx, N.Y. A group of Conservatives decided that they did not like the "modern," Liberal leadership of their local Republican organization. Left-wingers usually ride high in gangsterism. Left-wingers to think of trying to be most of the Bronx and to think of trying to be more conservative than the Bronx so-called Republicans was foolish, politically unwise, and impractical. Yet, this group thought of doing it, and did it successfully. Via the old doorbell-ringing method, the Insurgent Republicans took all the honors in the Bronx 8th A.D.

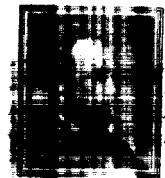

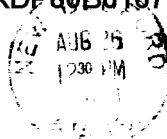

There is no reason why Conservative Republicans and Democrats alike cannot do the same thing in any Congressional District anywhere in the United States. When it has been done in enough local precincts and in both parties, the country will be on the right track.

THIS 'N THAT
